

Find the Ancestors

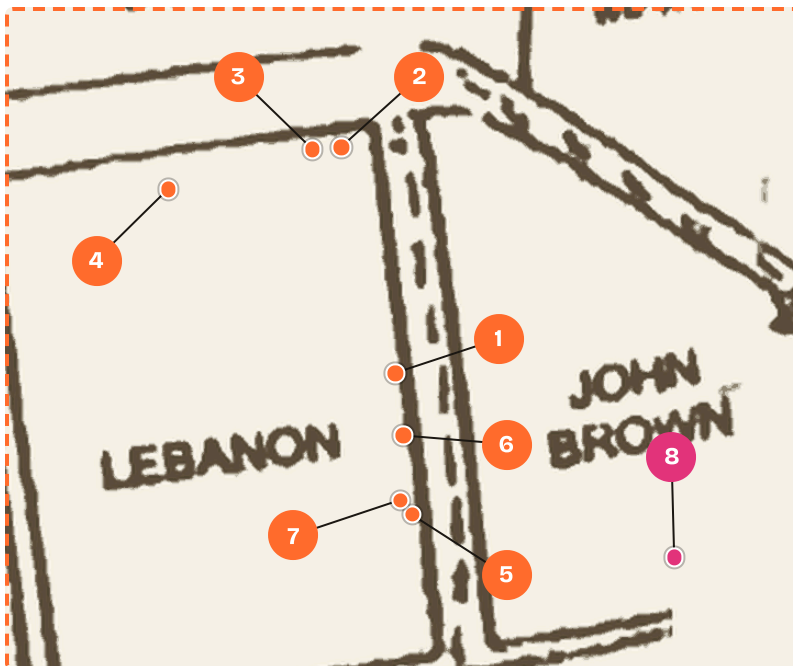

Twelve people that Jubilee School students wrote about rest here at Eden. Follow the numbers on the map, find each headstone, and check the box when you do.

EXPLORER _____

DATE _____

CLOSE-UP · LEBANON & JOHN BROWN SECTIONS

WHO TO FIND

1	William Still Father of the Underground Railroad · 1821–1902	Lebanon · Lot 16	☐
2	Octavius Catto Teacher, civil rights leader, ballplayer · 1839–1871	Lebanon · Lot 124	☐
3	Caroline LeCount Teacher who desegregated streetcars · 1846–1923	Lebanon · Lot 187	☐
4	Laura Wheeler Waring Painter and art teacher · 1887–1984	Lebanon · Lot 680	☐
5	James Forten Sailmaker and abolitionist · 1766–1842	Lebanon · Lot 25	☐
6	Charles L. Blockson Historian and book collector · 1933–2023	Lebanon · Lot 20	☐
7	Rev. Absalom Jones First Black Episcopal priest · 1746–1818	Lebanon · Lot 39	☐
8	Frances Ellen Watkins Harper Poet and abolitionist · 1825–1911	John Brown · Lot 487	☐
9	Marian Anderson World-famous singer · 1897–1993	Celestine · Lot 1158	☐
10	Christopher J. Perry Founder of the Philadelphia Tribune · 1854–1921	Celestine · Lot 1097	☐
11	William Whipper Abolitionist and lumber merchant · 1804–1876	Olive · Lot 353	☐
12	Jessie Redmon Fauset Harlem Renaissance writer · 1882–1961	Olive · Lot 93	☐

How to explore. Start at the Springfield Avenue gate. Section names are printed on the map; lot numbers are on small markers along the paths. Ask at the Office (marked) if you get stuck.

Be a good guest. Eden is a resting place. Walk on the paths, speak softly, and leave every marker just as you found it.

EDEN CEMETERY · 1434 SPRINGFIELD RD, COLLINGDALE PA ·
LETTERS TO THE ANCESTORS, JUBILEE SCHOOL